

§ 363.161

beneficiary has consented to a change in the registration of the bonds after conversion; and

(4) Converted savings bonds of all series registered in the coowner form of registration, where the non-converting coowner has consented to a change in the registration of the bonds after conversion.

§ 363.161 What definitive savings bonds are eligible to be converted to book-entry bonds?

Series E, Series EE, and Series I savings bonds issued in denominations of $25 or greater, in single owner, coowner, or owner with beneficiary forms of registration, are eligible for conversion to book-entry bonds in New Treasury Direct.

§ 363.162 Who may convert a definitive savings bond?

The owner of a New Treasury Direct primary account may convert a definitive savings bond.

(a) Bond that is registered to the account owner. The owner of a definitive savings bond registered in the single owner form of registration, either coowner of a bond registered in the coowner form of registration, and the owner of a bond registered in the owner with beneficiary form of registration of all eligible series, may convert that definitive bond to a book-entry bond to be held in his or her New Treasury Direct account.

(b) Bond that is registered to someone other than the account owner. We will convert an eligible definitive savings bond submitted by someone other than the registered owner of the savings bond. See the special rules in section 363.166.

§ 363.163 How do I convert an eligible definitive savings bond?

We will provide online instructions for converting your definitive savings bond. You must surrender to us the definitive bond to be converted at the time of conversion.

§ 363.164 Is a converted savings bond eligible to be converted back into a definitive bond?

Once a definitive savings bond has been converted to a book-entry bond, it may not be converted back into a definitive bond.

31 CFR Ch. II (7-1-05 Edition)

§ 363.165 What happens when I convert a savings bond that is registered in my name as the owner, either coowner, or the owner with a beneficiary?

(a) Unmatured savings bond. When the conversion is approved, an unmatured savings bond that is registered in the name of the New Treasury Direct account owner as single owner, either coowner, or owner with beneficiary, will be released to the account owner's conversion linked account.

(b) Matured savings bond. A matured savings bond that is registered in the name of the New Treasury Direct account owner as single owner, either coowner, or owner with beneficiary, will be converted to a book-entry bond and automatically redeemed. The redemption proceeds will be used to purchase a certificate of indebtedness in the account owner's name in his or her primary account.

§ 363.166 What happens when I convert a savings bond that is not registered in my name as owner, either coowner, or owner with beneficiary (including a bond registered in the name of a minor)?

We will presume that a savings bond registered in the name of someone other than the New Treasury Direct account owner (including a bond registered in the name of a minor), was purchased by the account owner as a gift for the registered owner.

(a) Unmatured savings bond. (1) General. An unmatured savings bond registered in the name of someone other than the account owner will be converted to a book-entry bond, released as a gift bond to the account owner's conversion linked account, and held until delivered to the New Treasury Direct account (or minor linked account, if the registered owner is a minor) of the registered owner.

(2) Delivery of unmatured gift bond to registered owner. The New Treasury Direct account owner may deliver the converted gift bond to the New Treasury Direct account (or minor linked account, if the registered owner is a minor) of the registered owner, or, if the bond is registered in the coowner
