§ 102-75.60

to mixed-ownership Government corporations, and to the municipal government of the District of Columbia; and

(b) Resolve conflicting requests for transferring real property that the involved agencies cannot resolve.

§ 102-75.35 What are GSA's responsibilities concerning the identification of unneeded Federal real property?

In accordance with Executive Order 12512, the Administrator of General Services is responsible for providing Governmentwide policy, oversight, and guidance for Federal real property management. The Administrator of General Services must issue standards, procedures, and guidelines for surveying the real property holdings of executive agencies on a continuing basis to identify properties which are not utilized, are underutilized, or are not being put to optimum use. In addition, the Administrator must develop survey reports describing any property or portion thereof which, in his or her judgment, is not utilized, is underutilized, or is not being put to optimum use, and which should be reported as excess property. These provisions are presently limited to fee-owned properties and supporting leaseholds and lesser interests located within the States of the United States, the District of Columbia, the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, American Samoa, Guam, the Trust Territory of the Pacific Islands, and the Virgin Islands.

STANDARDS

§ 102-75.40 What are the standards that each executive agency must use to identify unneeded Federal real property?

Each executive agency must identify unneeded Federal property using the following standards:

- (a) Not utilized.
- (b) Underutilized.
- (c) Not being put to optimum use.

§ 102-75.45 What does the term "Not utilized" mean?

Not utilized means an entire property or portion thereof, with or without improvements, not occupied for current program purposes of the accountable executive agency, or occupied in caretaker status only.

§ 102-75.50 What does the term "Underutilized" mean?

Underutilized means an entire property or portion thereof, with or without improvements, which is used:

- (1) Irregularly or intermittently by the accountable executive agency for current program purposes of that agency; or
- (2) For current program purposes that can be satisfied with only a portion of the property.

§ 102-75.55 What does the term "Not being put to optimum use" mean?

Not being put to optimum use means an entire property or portion thereof, with or without improvements, which:

- (1) Even though used for current program purposes, the nature, value, or location of the property is such that it could be utilized for a different and significantly higher and better purpose; or
- (2) The costs of occupying are substantially higher than other suitable properties that could be made available through transfer, purchase, or lease with total net savings to the Government, after considering property values, costs of moving, occupancy, operational efficiency, environmental effects, regional planning, and employee morale.

GUIDELINES

§ 102-75.60 What are landholding agencies' responsibilities concerning real property surveys?

A landholding agency's responsibilities concerning real property utilization surveys are to:

- (a) Survey real property under its control (i.e., property reported on its financial statements) at least annually to identify property that is not utilized, underutilized, or not being put to optimum use. When other needs for the property are identified or recognized, the agency must determine whether continuation of the current use or another use would better serve the public interest, considering both the Federal agency's needs and the property's location.
