

§ 1211.1-6 Freedom to initiate grievances.

The initiation of a grievance shall not be construed as reflecting on a volunteer's standing, performance or desirability as a volunteer. ACTION intends that each supervisor and sponsor, as well as ACTION and its employees, maintain a healthy atmosphere in which a volunteer can speak freely and have frank discussions of problems. A volunteer who initiates a grievance shall not as a result of such an action be subjected to restraint, interference, coercion, discrimination or reprisal.

§ 1211.1-7 Entitlement to representation.

A volunteer may be accompanied, represented, and advised by a representative of the volunteer's own choice at any stage of the proceeding. The volunteer shall designate his or her representative in writing. A person chosen by the volunteer must be willing to act as representative and have no conflict between his or her position and the subject matter of the grievance.

§ 1211.1-8 Time for preparation and presentation.

(a) Both a volunteer and a volunteer's representative, if another volunteer or an employee of ACTION, must be given a reasonable amount of administrative leave from their assignments to present a grievance or appeal.

(b) ACTION will not pay travel expense or per diem travel allowances for either a volunteer or his or her representative in connection with the preparation of a grievance or appeal, except in connection with a hearing and the examination of the grievant file as provided in § 1211.1-12(c).

§ 1211.1-9 Access to agency records.

(a) A volunteer is entitled to review any material in his or her official volunteer folder and any relevant Agency documents to the extent permitted by the Freedom of Information Act and the Privacy Act, as amended, 5 U.S.C. 552, U.S.C. 552a. Examples of documents which may be withheld from volunteers include references obtained under a pledge of confidentiality, official volunteer folders of other volunteers, and privileged intra-agency documents.

(b) A volunteer may review relevant documents in the possession of a sponsor to the extent such documents are disclosable under the Freedom of Information Act and Privacy Act.

§ 1211.1-10 Informal grievance procedure.

(a) Initiation of grievance. A volunteer may initiate a grievance within 15 calendar days after the event giving rise to the grievance occurs, or within 15 calendar days after becoming aware of the event. A grievance arising out of a continuing condition or practice that individually affects the volunteer may be brought at any time. A volunteer initiates a grievance by presenting it in writing to the chief executive officer of the sponsor, or the representative designated to receive grievances from volunteers. The designated representative may not be the immediate supervisor of volunteers assigned to the sponsor. The chief executive officer of the sponsor or the designated representative shall respond in writing to the grievance within five (5) working days after receipt. The chief executive officer or designee may not refuse to respond to a complaint on the basis that it is not a grievance as defined in § 1211.1-3(b), or that it is excluded from coverage under § 1211.1-5, but may, in the written response, refuse to grant the relief requested on either of these grounds.

If the grievance involves a matter over which the sponsor has no control, or if the chief executive officer is the immediate supervisor of the volunteer, the procedures described in this section may be omitted, and the volunteer may present the grievance in writing directly to the State Director or designee as described in paragraph (b) of this section within the time limits specified in this paragraph (a).

(b) Consideration by ACTION State Director or designee. If the matter is not resolved to the volunteer's satisfaction by the sponsor's chief executive officer, the volunteer may submit the grievance in writing to the ACTION State Director or designee within five (5)
