

§ 102.20

(b) If SBA counsel approves compliance with the subpoena, SBA will comply.

(c) If SBA counsel disapproves compliance with the subpoena, SBA will not comply, and will base such non-compliance on an appropriate legal basis such as privilege or a statute.

(d) SBA counsel must provide a copy of any subpoena relating to a criminal matter to SBA's Inspector General prior to its return date.

Subpart B—The Privacy Act

§ 102.20 What privacy rights does this subpart regulate?

This subpart establishes SBA's policy and procedures safeguarding an individual against an invasion of personal privacy.

(a) Except as otherwise provided by law or regulation, SBA will permit you to do the following:

(1) Determine what records pertaining to you are collected, maintained, used, or disseminated by SBA;

(2) Object when records pertaining to you are obtained by SBA for a particular purpose and are proposed to be used or made available for another purpose without your consent; and

(3) Gain access to information pertaining to you in records, have a copy made of all or any portion of those records, and correct or amend such records as appropriate.

(b) SBA will collect, maintain, use, or disseminate any record of identifiable personal information in a manner that assures that such action is for a necessary and lawful purpose, that the information is current and accurate for its intended use, and that adequate safeguards are provided to prevent misuse of such information.

(c) SBA will permit exemptions from the requirements of 5 U.S.C. 552a (Privacy Act of 1974) ("PA") only where an important public policy need for such exemption has been determined pursuant to or under specific statutory authority.

§ 102.21 How will SBA maintain records?

SBA records will:

13 CFR Ch. I (1-1-07 Edition)

(a) Contain only such information about an individual as is relevant and necessary to accomplish a purpose required of SBA by statute, regulation, or by Executive Order of the President.

(b) Be comprised, to the maximum practical extent, of an individual's own statements when the information may result in an adverse determination about an individual's rights, benefits, or privileges under a Federal program.

§ 102.22 When will SBA disclose records?

SBA will not disclose to anyone any record which is contained in a system of records, except that it will disclose a record:

(a) To the person about whom the record is maintained, or to that person's agent, within the limits discussed in this subpart;

(b) To those SBA employees who have a need for the record to perform their duties;

(c) When required under 5 U.S.C. 552 (FOIA);

(d) For a routine use of the record compatible with the purpose for which it was collected;

(e) To the Bureau of the Census for purposes of planning or carrying out a census, survey, or related activity pursuant to Title 13, United States Code;

(f) To a recipient who has provided the Agency with advance adequate written assurance that the record will be used solely as a statistical research or reporting record, where the record is transferred in a form that is not individually identifiable;

(g) To the National Archives of the United States as a record which has sufficient historical or other value to warrant its continued preservation by the U.S. Government, or for evaluation by the Administrator of General Services or his or her designee to determine whether the record has such value;

(h) To another agency or to an instrumentality of any governmental jurisdiction within or under the control of the United States for a civil or criminal law enforcement activity if:

(1) The activity is authorized by law; and

(2) The head of the agency or instrumentality has made a written request
