

§ 90.603

40 CFR Ch. I (7-1-07 Edition)

§ 90.603 [Reserved]

§ 90.604 General requirements.

(a) A nonconforming engine offered for importation into the United States may only be imported for purposes other than resale under § 90.611, or under the provisions of § 90.612, provided that an exemption or exclusion is granted by the Administrator.

(b) Final admission shall not be granted unless:

(1) The engine is imported for purposes other than resale under § 90.611; or

(2) The engine is exempted or excluded under § 90.612.

(c) An engine offered for importation may be admitted into the United States. In order to obtain admission, the importer must submit to the Administrator a written request for approval containing the following:

(1) Identification of the importer and the importer's address, telephone number, and taxpayer identification number;

(2) Identification of the engine owner, the owner's address, telephone number, and taxpayer identification number;

(3) Identification of the engine including make, model, identification number, and original production year;

(4) Information indicating under what provision of these regulations the engine is to be imported;

(5) Identification of the place where the subject engine is to be stored until EPA approval of the importer's application to the Administrator for final admission;

(6) Authorization for EPA enforcement officers to conduct inspections or testing otherwise permitted by the Act or regulations thereunder; and

(7) Such other information as is deemed necessary by the Administrator.

§ 90.605-90.610 [Reserved]

§ 90.611 Importation for purposes other than resale.

(a) Any individual may import on a one-time basis three or fewer nonconforming engines for purposes other than resale. Such importation by individuals is permitted without modification to the engines and without prior written approval of EPA. Importations under this provision shall be made by completing such applications as required by the Administrator. Such applications shall contain:

(1) Identification of the importer of the engine and the importer's address, telephone number, and taxpayer identification number;

(2) Identification of the engine owner, the owner's address, telephone number, and taxpayer identification number;

(3) The number of engines imported under § 90.611 by the individual;

(4) A statement that the individual has not previously imported any engines under § 90.611;

(5) A statement that the individual is not importing the engines for the purpose of resale;

(6) For each engine imported, identification of the engine including make, model, identification number, and original production year;

(7) Information indicating under what provision of these regulations the engine is to be imported;

(8) Authorization for EPA enforcement officers to conduct inspections permitted by the Act or regulations thereunder;

(9) Such other information as is deemed necessary by the Administrator.

(b) EPA will not require a U.S. Customs Service bond for a nonconforming engine which is imported under § 90.611.

§ 90.612 Exemptions and exclusions.

(a) Individuals shall be eligible for importing engines into the United States under the provisions of this section, unless otherwise specified.

(b) Notwithstanding other requirements of this subpart, an engine entitled to one of the temporary exemptions of this paragraph may be conditionally admitted into the United States if prior written approval for the conditional admission is obtained from the Administrator. Conditional admission is to be under U.S. Customs Service bond. The Administrator may request that the U.S. Customs Service require a specific bond amount to ensure compliance with the requirements of the Act and this subpart. A written request for approval from the Administrator is to contain the identification
