

First month of entitlement means the first month for which the individual meets all the requirements for entitlement to Part A benefits.

Insured individual means an individual who has the number of quarters of coverage required for monthly social security benefits.

Quarter of coverage means a calendar quarter that is counted toward the number of covered quarters required to make the individual eligible for monthly social security benefits. A quarter is counted if during that quarter (or that calendar year) the individual earned a required minimum amount of money. (For details, see 20 CFR part 404, subpart B.)

§ 406.5 Basis of eligibility and entitlement.

(a) Hospital insurance without premiums. Hospital insurance is available to most individuals without payment of a premium if they:

- (1) Are age 65 or over, or
- (2) Have received social security or railroad retirement disability benefits for 25 months; or
- (3) Have end-stage renal disease. Subpart B of this part explains the requirements such individuals must meet to obtain hospital insurance without premiums.

(b) Premium hospital insurance. Many individuals who are age 65 or over, but do not meet the requirements set forth in subpart B of this part, and certain individuals under age 65, may obtain the benefits by paying a premium. Section 406.20 of this part explains the requirements individuals must meet to obtain premium hospital insurance.

§ 406.6 Application or enrollment for hospital insurance.

(a) Basic provision. In most cases, eligibility for Medicare Part A is a result of entitlement to monthly social security or railroad retirement cash benefits or eligibility for monthly social security cash benefits. This section specifies the individuals who need not file an application to become entitled to hospital insurance, those who must file an application, and those who must enroll.

(b) Individuals who need not file an application for hospital insurance. An individual who meets any of the following conditions need not file an application for hospital insurance:

- (1) Is under age 65 and has been entitled, for more than 24 months, to monthly social security or railroad retirement benefits based on disability.
- (2) At the time of attainment of age 65, is entitled to monthly social security or railroad retirement benefits.
- (3) Establishes entitlement to monthly social security or railroad retirement benefits at any time after attaining age 65.

(c) Individuals who must file an application for hospital insurance. An individual must file an application for hospital insurance if he or she seeks entitlement to hospital insurance on the basis of—

- (1) The transitional provisions set forth in § 406.11;
- (2) Deemed entitlement to disabled widow's or widower's benefit under certain circumstances as provided in § 406.12;
- (3) A diagnosis of end-stage renal disease, as specified in § 406.13;
- (4) Effective January 1, 1981, eligibility for social security cash benefits, as specified in § 406.10(a)(3), if the individual has attained age 65 without applying for those benefits; or
- (5) The special provisions applicable to government employment as set forth in § 406.15.

(d) When application is deemed to be filed. (1) An application based on the transitional provisions or on ESRD is deemed to be filed in the first month of eligibility if it is filed not more than 3 months before the first month, and is retroactive to that month if filed within 12 months after the first month. An application filed more than 12 months after the first month of eligibility is retroactive to the 12th month before the month it is filed.

(2) An application for deemed entitlement to disabled widow's or widower's benefits, that is filed before the first month in which the individual meets all conditions of entitlement for this benefit, will be deemed a valid application if those conditions are met before
